Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back to the second half of the Autumn Term. As you know, this is always a busy—and lovely—half term as we lead up to Christmas. We will keep you updated with upcoming events and dates, so please do keep checking the newsletter each week.

Well done to the children who respectfully marked a two minute silence for Remembrance today at the Church. Thank you also for the children's donations to this year's Poppy Appeal.

On Monday 10th November, the children are invited to wear odd socks in support of our Anti-Bullying week which will follow the theme 'Power for Good.' Odd socks help us to think about the message that we all have similarities but are all still unique! Our School Councillors will lead us in an important collective worship on Wednesday to think about this.

We will also be celebrating Interfaith Week with Reverend Chris on Thursday. These themes will all feed into our value of Community and the importance of this both in and outside of school.

A big well done and congratulations to Stephanie who has won the Chesil Theatre of Dreams Art Competition. Her winning design can now be seen on the Chesil theatre hoardings during their renovation work.

Year 4 enjoyed a visit to the Cathedral this week for their Anglo Saxon unit. They had a fabulous day having a tour of the Cathedral, making shields and carrying out an archaeological dig. They also were invited to observe a remembrance service that was taking place.

Year 6 also enjoyed a visit to Winchester College Treasury for an ancient Greek workshop. They will be 'taking over' the Treasury for the Day very soon which I know they are very much looking forward to attending!

A reminder that Year 3 will be leading us in their Sharing Worship on Tuesday 11th November at 3pm. We hope parents and families can join us then .

Wishing you all a happy weekend.
Kind regards
Jane Hall
Headteacher

Well done everyone!
Golden Broom Award
This week, the tidiest classroom and cloak room award goes to Lion Class. Well done to the class

Collective Worship this week…

This week, we have reflected on Remembrance and why it is important to remember . We have attended the church this morning for a short Remembrance Service and the children respectfully took part the two minutes silence we held to mark this coming Sunday's Remembrance Day.
